

Convention Report

The committee members, volunteers, fellowship, and love of the program supported the convention, which made this a great convention. We appreciate the feedback given. We shared the hotel feedback with the Best Western. Our collective higher power brought us together for a reason; get this energy back to your meetings, share your love in service, outreach, and support for our fellowship.

Convention Fact Breakdown

The 546 participants made fellowship come alive in meetings, meals, and even a dance.
